

Tinkering Laboratory –Awareness Session Report

The awareness session for hostel students on “Tinkering Laboratory” is conducted on 26th October 2017. The impact of innovation and making were discussed. The methodology which has to be implemented to make any project / ideas was discussed. Some of the examples are shown. The role of innovation ecosystem with waterfall design and project based learning are important for develop their skill sets. The expected outcomes of tinkering lab are also discussed. The effective time utilization after working hours in tinkering lab is represented. Almost 250 students have attended this awareness session from both boys and girls hostel.

Participants of the Tinkering Lab Awareness Program on 26th October 2017

Venue : Smt. Rajalakshmi Jayaraman Seminar Hall

Mr.Jeeva.B, Tinkering lab Coordinator, addressing the students